The below classes will be offered Sunday mornings this Fall.

THE DEEP END: DIVING INTO THE BOOK OF ACTS

Sundays September 13 - October 18 from 11:30am-12:30pm

The church didn't happen by accident. It was built by ordinary people who showed up, took risks, and let the Spirit lead them somewhere new. Join Pastor Mike as we dig into the book of Acts and watch the first followers of Jesus figure out what it actually means to be the church, together.

GUEST SPEAKER: UNITED METHODIST COMMUNITY HOUSE (UMCH)

Sunday October 25 from 11:30am-12:30pm

Carla Moore, Executive Director, will provide a project update on UMCH's transformational expansion, including expanded services for children and older adults, construction progress, housing progress, and more.

ALLYSHIP BEST PRACTICES & LGBTQ+ 101

Sundays November 1 & 8 from 11:30am-12:30pm

This two week series will include a presentation from Dani Patrick about best practices for allyship and a LGBTQ+ 101 presentation by Ames Palson of Equality Michigan. The training covers basic LGBTQ+ terminology, FAQs about pronouns, gender, and sexuality, barriers to safety that LGBTQ+ folks face, and more.

GUEST SPEAKERS: TOGETHER WEST MICHIGAN (TWM)

Sunday November 15 from 11:30am-12:30pm

What is community organizing and more importantly, what is effective community organizing? This thought-provoking discussion will describe how we can influence local public policy decision-makers. Brock Grosso and Andy Ryskamp will share the TWM approach to broad-based organizing.

INCARNATION ADVENT STUDY

Sundays November 29 - December 20 from 11:30am-12:30pm

In this Advent study, Adam Hamilton examines the names of Christ used by the gospel writers, exploring the historical and personal significance of his birth. His parents named him Jesus but the prophets, the shepherds, the wise men, and the angels addressed him by other names. Let's discuss why together!
